Workshops

Employees & Subcontractors: Recruit, Retain and Comply

April 10 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Some of the most challenging issues facing small business owners involve their most important assets — people! Developing and retaining a loyal, productive team while complying with employment laws is a critical management task. This workshop will help your Massachusetts business better manage employee and contractor issues, and assist you in avoiding legal issues. Speaker: Laurie LaBrie, Integrated Staffing, Inc. Presented by the Small Business Development Center. FREE

Managing A Mid-Size Company For Growth And Profit

April 24 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Do you have what it takes to be a good manager? Do you have the team in place to grow your business? This workshop — aimed at mid-size company leaders — focuses on key management skills needed as companies add employees. From the basics of good delegation to organizational development, strategic management planning, and recruiting good talent, this workshop will help you plan for a very profitable future. Led by Marc Chinoy, author of multiple books related to Planning and Management and experienced in assisting mid-size and large companies to expand and compete effectively, this workshop is your opportunity to learn from the best. Co-sponsored by the Small Business Development Center. FREE

Making the Transition from Business Owner to Leader

May 6 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Leadership is the ability to influence people to willingly follow your guidance and to adhere to your decisions. This workshop will show business owners how to lead with authority and influence. Become the leader your company needs! Speaker: Jack Wilson, President of JWA/Video. FREE

Sales: The Art & Science of Selling

May 20 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Innovative and practical approaches to sales will quickly improve your company's bottom line. Learn about cold calling, closing sales, getting that first appointment, making presentations and developing positive long-term relationships with customers. Note: this workshop does not cover marketing. Speaker: Jay Wallus of StreetSmart. Presented by the Small Business Development Center.

128 Venture North

Are you an entrepreneur looking for investors? Are you an investor, manager or service provider looking for growth enterprises? Our 128 Venture North Breakfasts — sponsored jointly by the Enterprise Center and the 128 Innovation Capital Group — help you find answers to these questions. Running a Virtual Company

June 5 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Running a virtual company — leveraging technology to eliminate physical and geographic boundaries. This is a seminar that focuses on how to work in the new global economy not where to work. Come learn how to:

- Build an infrastructure to support a virtual enterprise (including support of contractors)
- Recruit and retain top-talent — provide ultimate flexibility
- Automate tasks that waste people's time
- Create central document management and workflow processes and tools
- Manage by results — monitor performance and reporting
- Communicate effectively — need to make people feel connected
- Motivate and compensate based on results

Come learn how technology is tearing down the walls and allowing you to build a truly global enterprise for the 21st century.

Speakers: Timothy A Guyre, Thoughtware Worldwide, LLC and Rich Chadwick, MultiMedia Pros. FREE

Cash Flow Your Way to Break Even

June 10 — 8:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m.

Why do bankers say “cash flow is king?” How is cash flow different from profit? This workshop and its simple but realistic class exercise will help you understand cash flow, assess when you will need capital, and position your business for bank financing. Speaker: Bob Vieira. Presented by the Small Business Development Center. FREE

All events are held at the Enterprise Center, located on the new Central Campus of Salem State College, 121 Loring Avenue, Salem, MA 01970.
