

Enterprise Center

AT | SALEM | STATE | COLLEGE

Second Annual

:: Million Dollar Womensm Symposium ::

November 15, 2006—location to be announced.

SPONSORED BY: Beverly Cooperative Bank

In our second annual Million Dollar Women Symposium we focus on women leaders who run organizations with over $1 million in revenue. They will talk about their lives and how they have made it to leadership positions. This session will inspire and guide you as you make your decisions about your own career and life.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Evelyn Murphy

Former Lt. Gov. of Massachusetts and author of Getting Even: Why Women Don't Get Paid Like Men and What to do About It

She will discuss her findings on pay differences between men and women and her experience as a woman leader.

SCHEDULE: November 15, 2006

- 8:30 to 9:15 Welcome and Breakfast
- 9:15 to 10:00 Keynote
- 10:00 to Noon Panel discussion and Q&A featuring:

- Karen Andreas, Executive Director, Eagle Tribune Publishing*
- Kimberley Driscoll, Mayor of Salem*
- Dr. Nancy Harrington, President, Salem State College*
- Carol Vallone, former CEO of WebCT which was recently sold to Blackboard*
- Robin Liss, Founder/President/Editor in Chief, Camcorderinfo.com and DigitalCamerainfo.com*

CO-SPONSORS INCLUDE

- National Association of Women Business Owners
- New England Women Business Owners
- North Shore Women in Business
- Small Business Development Center

FEE: Cost for half day workshop is $25 payable at the door

RSVP

Seating is limited. Advanced registration is required.
The Enterprise Center is located at 121 Loring Avenue, Salem, MA 01970

:: To Register visit us at www.enterprisectr.org or contact Cathy Julien, at cjulien@enterprisectr.org. Advanced registration is required. ::